

Mark Luppi

Executive Vice President
Head of Business Banking
HSBC Bank USA, N.A.

Mark Luppi is Executive Vice President, Head of Business Banking for HSBC Bank USA, N.A., a subsidiary of HSBC Holdings plc (NYSE:HBC), one of the world's largest banking and financial services organizations. In this role, he is responsible for implementing our global business banking strategies across North America.

Prior to joining HSBC in 2008, Mark spent fourteen years with Citizens Financial Group most recently as Executive Vice President in the Business Banking Division. In that role, Mark led the Business Banking strategy, sales and customer management efforts through a team of 400+ Business Bankers across Citizens U. S. footprint.

Mark is well known in the industry. In 2003, he was named the U.S. Small Business Administration's "Financial Services Advocate of the Year" in the Mid-Atlantic. In addition, he has been a featured presenter at the BAI Small Business Conference in 2003 and the ABA Small Business Conferences in 2002, 2005, 2007 & 2009. He is active in numerous business, community and charitable organizations including the Business Banking Board in Washington, D.C. and the Consumer Banker's Association's Small Business Committee. He has also worked extensively with the American Red Cross where he served as Treasurer and Finance Committee Chair on its boards both in Massachusetts and in Southeastern PA.

Mark is a graduate of Northeastern University in Boston with a B.S. in Economics, holds an MBA from Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts and attended Harvard's Executive Leadership Program conducted in Edinburgh, Scotland.